

ON THE HUMP IN VIRGINIA

Grand Rally and Barbecue in the County of Pulaski.

DANIEL AND WYSOR SPEAK

Crowd of Three Thousand Raised to Great Heights of Enthusiasm—Fed at a Barbecue.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PULASKI, VA., October 27.—To-day has been a red-letter day for the Democrats in Pulaski county. An old time barbecue took place in the fair grounds near Dublin, and people from all over the county and from the adjoining counties of Wythe and Montgomery were in attendance, there being between twenty-five hundred and three thousand people present, the largest crowd ever gotten together at the grounds.

Politically, the meeting was a great success, as well as a success in every other way.

At 10:30, Thornton L. Massey, county chairman, in a short and appropriate speech introduced our next Congressman, J. C. Wisor, who proceeded in a masterly way to present the issues of the day to the appreciative audience, and for nearly two hours held them together while he preached Jeffersonian Democracy.

At the conclusion of his speech an adjournment was had for dinner, which was arranged on benches forming a hollow square, and if any one went away hungry it was their own fault, for there was all kinds of eatings and plenty of it.

Daniel Speaks.

After dinner the crowd assembled in and around the grand stand, and when the Lame Lion of Lynchburg, Major John W. Daniel, was introduced by Thornton L. Massey, the crowd went wild and cheer after cheer rent the air. It was some minutes before Daniel could be heard. The speaker was never in better form, nor was ever a speech made that did more good for the Democratic party. Clean, logical and forceful, it carried conviction to the hearts of his hearers, and the vast crowd motionless and drank in each word as Daniel poured forth his eloquence in support of J. C. Wisor, and of the national Democratic ticket.

Daniel has made votes for Wisor to-day, and the Republicans will not be able to counteract his influence in any way between now and the day of election. He is the idol of the Southwest, and they almost worship him. Numbers of people crowded around him to-day, saying as they came up, "I want to shake hands with the 'Lame Lion of Lynchburg.'"

Wisor's Gallant Canvass.

Wisor is making the hardest fight that has ever been made in the Ninth District. Aggressive and fearless, he has stumped the district from one end to the other and by his very boldness, has won votes for himself and party that no other man in the Ninth could win. That the Republicans have lost the Ninth District is a foregone conclusion. They are in the last ditch and see defeat staring them in the face as is evidenced by the fact that they are bringing a Cabinet officer, Leslie M. Shaw, to speak in the district and advertising that he is the only Cabinet officer ever address the voters in this district.

At the last election, the majority in this county was less than fifty. This time Wisor will carry it by from two hundred and fifty to three hundred majority.

Governor at Onancock.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ONANCOCK, VA., Oct. 27.—Governor A. J. Montague spoke in the Town Hall here last night to a large audience. After a severe arraignment of the Republican administration, he closed with a glowing picture of Mr. Roosevelt as a war hero, with his bright drawn sword in his hand and the Constitution under his feet, and stated it was the purpose of the Democratic party to put the sword under his feet and to march forward with the constitution in his hands. The crowd was greatly pleased and enthusiastic and prolonged cheers followed his delivery. Many ladies were in the audience.

Colonel Miles in Tazewell.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
TAZEWELL, VA., October 27.—Colonel George W. Miles, of the Tazewell county, was here to-night before a good audience, mainly of town people.

WHY APPENDICITIS?

Why is appendicitis so common to-day? Because we have got into the pernicious habit of eating too fast.

Dr. Curtis, the great authority on this disease, says that appendicitis often follows the eating of a very heavy, or particularly large or indigestible meal.

After carefully following a foolish custom, you can ensure your safety by taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

It is an accepted fact that if you will keep your digestive apparatus in good order, you will never suffer from this disease, which is a very dangerous and weakening operation, with long weeks wasted in bed, and big doctors and surgeons' bills to pay as souvenirs.

Southall and Lassiter.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
AMELIA, C. H., VA., October 27.—Two of the finest political speeches ever heard here, in the history of the district, were made by Messrs. C. T. Lassiter, of Petersburg, and R. G. Southall here to-day.

The meeting was presided over by Commonwealth's Attorney Thomas R. Hardaway, who is also county chairman, and confined his remarks chiefly to a discussion of the personnel of the two national tickets, in which he made the President look like small potatoes as compared with Judge Parker.

Congressman Southall followed Mr. Lassiter, and his home people, who have known and loved him all his life, say they never saw or heard him in so happy a manner. He confined his remarks chiefly to the tariff, and surprised all by his masterly manner in which he handled it.

Governor Goes to Lynchburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., October 27.—Governor Montague will make the first speech of the campaign in Lynchburg to-morrow night, when it is expected that an immense crowd will hear him. Congressman Swanson, who was invited to speak at the same time, has advised that he cannot come.

Keezell at Scottsville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SCOTTSVILLE, VA., Oct. 27.—State Senator George B. Keezell and W. Allen Perkins spoke in the Town Hall here to-night to a large and enthusiastic audience. Mr. Perkins spoke for a short time, principally on the tariff question, but did not fail to give Roosevelt a little hot shot.

Senator Keezell followed with a most excellent speech and was frequently applauded. He made a most favorable impression and his plain, practical discourse will do much good. He urged the voters to turn out on election day, and do their duty.

Cyclone Jim.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CLEVELAND, VA., Oct. 27.—Hon. Jas. W. Marshall spoke to a packed house at this place last night. The crowd was greatly pleased and enthusiastic and prolonged cheers followed his delivery. Many ladies were in the audience.

Willard and Mann.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FRANKLIN, VA., Oct. 27.—Probably the last political run of the campaign was made in this town last night, when the Republicans of the Parker, Davis and Maynard Club. The speakers were Judge W. H. Mann and Lieutenant-Governor Jos. E. Willard. The meeting was held at Seminary Hall and a crowd of four hundred was in attendance, among whom were a considerable number of ladies. The speeches were both very forceful and entertaining.

After the speaking the entire crowd was invited to the Armory Hall, where a beautiful supper of cold meats had been provided as well as plenty of cigars. All seemed to thoroughly enjoy the occasion. Judge Mann was entertained by Mr. P. D. Camp and Colonel Willard by Mr. J. C. Parker. The Parker, Davis and Maynard Club will have a jubilee meeting, which they propose to have after the election of Parker and Davis.

An Aged Lady's Fall.

TAZEWELL, VA., Oct. 27.—Mrs. J. B. Caudill fell from a chair in which she was standing at her home here this afternoon, while playing with a gun. She was snapping the gun, when it discharged and the lead entered her heart, causing death in a few minutes.

Norman Long, who was the same age, who was with him at the time, became frightened and has disappeared.

granite shaft stood unveiled, the crowd broke forth in loud cheers, to which was added the rebel yell that had been heard on many other and different occasions.

Miss Johnston, the chief sponsor, was attended by twelve young ladies, all attired in white, with red trimmings, and all daughters of Confederate soldiers.

The beautiful picture they made as they stood grouped about the monument was one rarely equalled. The names of their fathers have swelled the roll of the Confederate brave—Johnson, Simmons, Price, Godwin, Lipes, West, Burke, Ross, Breckenridge.

The exercises during the day were greatly enlivened by the Alpine Band, from Clifton Forge.

The large crowd present did not seem to tax the hospitality of the people of Fincastle, who provided for the wants of all.

The Bolecourt Association.

The Bolecourt Confederate Memorial Association has for its president Major J. W. Johnston, W. B. Simmons, secretary, and The Bank of Fincastle as depository.

It was organized at Fincastle, Va., in August, 1902, to build a monument on the courthouse square to the twelve volunteer companies that went to the war from Bolecourt county, as follows: Nine companies of infantry, one company of cavalry, one company of light artillery, and one company of heavy artillery.

The amount of money raised, approximately $1,650, and it is expected that at least $50 more will be raised—all this wholly by individual contributions.

At a recent meeting, R. E. Lee Camp, No. 1, C. V., Richmond, Va., made a handsome contribution of $1,600 or so—everything, including expenses of dedication day, will be fully paid for, and perhaps a small sum be left over for the future purposes of the association.

The dimensions of the monument are as follows:

Bottom base, 6 x 6 x 12.
Second base, 4 x 4 x 1.
Third base, 3 x 3 x 1.4.
Die plate, 2 x 10 x 2 3/4; at top, 2 x 2 3/4.

Cap, 11 inches high, proper proportions. Shaft, 17 x 17 x 133; at top, 1 x 1. Total height of granite, 22 feet. Total height of monument above ground level, 32 feet. Total weight of granite, about 25,000 pounds.

Beware of our imitators!

We are the only distillers in this country selling direct to consumers. Like every success, we have imitators who "claim" to be distillers. They are not distillers and have no connection with a distillery. For proof, you need not take our word. Just see government reports. They are simply dealers, and can "doctor" their whiskey as much as they like and call it any age, for unfortunately the government does not control dealers as it does distillers. Now, these dealers are in business for profit, so when they offer eight to twelve-year-old whiskey for the same or less money than we, as distillers, can sell seven-year-old, the inference is plain. Their whiskey is not the age they claim and is adulterated and watered. The cheaper they sell, the more water and adulteration you get. Beware of imitators. If you want honest whiskey direct from our own distillery to you, with all its original strength, richness and flavor, carrying a UNITED STATES REGISTERED DISTILLER'S GUARANTEE of PURITY and AGE and saving the dealers enormous profits, then accept our offer, which is backed by a company with a capital of $500,000.00 paid in full, and the proud reputation of thirty-six years of continuous success. We have over a quarter of a million satisfied customers. Your money back if you're not satisfied.
